Opening

By Elizabeth Rooney

Now is the shining fabric of our day
 Torn open, flung apart,
 Rent wide by Love.
 Never again
 The tight, enclosing sky,
 The blue bowl,
 Or the star-illuminated tent.
 We are laid open to infinity,
 For Easter Love
 Has burst his tomb and ours.
 Now nothing shelters us
 From God's desire —
 Not flesh, not sky,
 Not stars, not even sin.
 Now Glory waits
 So He can enter in.
 Now does the dance begin.

After a winter such as the one we have just passed through, when doors, windows, curtains, blinds, and eyes have been shut tight against the bitter winds and cold, and we have moved in stiff and rigid bodies through our days, how glorious now to turn towards the holy day when we rejoice that Easter Love has burst the tomb and opened life, opened the future, opened eternity to us! Our lives are no longer bound by years or flesh or sin; Love has flung them wide and unbound us— if not yet in our bodies, then in our souls. Surely, Easter is 'Opening Day.'

"The Resurrection is not [merely] a single event, but a loosening of God's power and light into the earth and history that continues to alter all things, infusing them with the grace and power of God's own holiness. It is as though a door was opened, and what poured out will never be stopped, and that door cannot be closed."*

Only a few short days lie between us and Opening Day, but oh! the distance Jesus will cross between now and then. It will be no less than the distance between earth and heaven. Stay close and keep watch; Glory is entering in.

Get ready to dance...

Carter and Kerry

Porter-Broward Taskforce Needs Your Ideas!

Our congregation has once again received a major grant from the Mary Porter Designated fund of the Community Foundation of Broward. As you may recall from this past year, the Session has established the following guidelines for use of the grant:

- Enhancement of current ministries, which would include any of the following: (1) Special one-time programs, concerts, lectures, or other ministry events or expenses over and above the present ministries funded by the General Fund. (2) Grant-funded ministry such as a part-time parish nurse position),. and (3) seed money for new ministries.
- Capital Improvements to our facilities that would have one of the following purposes: Conserve energy consumption, reduce the environmental impact of our facilities and ministries, or increase accessibility and/or safety for members and visitors to these facilities.
- Contributions to other ministries and non-profit organizations that impact children and families or the quality of life of the greater Pottstown area.

If you have an idea that meets one of these criteria, let Carter and Kerry know and they will pass it on to the taskforce that will be studying the needs and making recommendations to Session later this Spring. Please turn in your ideas by April 12.

Upcoming Events

Church Work Day, April 4, 9 a.m./Camp Kirkwood Work Day, April 11

Help us prepare the church grounds for Easter! Our annual outdoor/indoor work day will begin on Saturday, April 4, 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. (this is a change from March 28 because of the cold weather). Rakes, shovels, pitch forks will be helpful, but not required. Coffee and doughnuts supplied!

Can you help Camp Kirkwood prepare for its summer camping season. Tim Peckham is organizing a work day at the camp on Saturday, April 11. All kinds of work will be done. If you can help, sign up on the church bulletin board or contact Tim. We can carpool if people are interested.

Calling All Weekend Warriors—FPC Wants You!

The holidays are over, and winter is still upon us, but it is also time to start looking to our ANNUAL DOMESTIC ADULT MISSION TRIP, April 26-May 1. We will be returning to Bayville, NJ this year. Last year was a great experience shared by all, and this year promises to be no less. Good rewarding work, wandering Holy Spirit, and good fellowship, not to mention tasty cuisine. And this year we are "kicking it up a notch". We have purchased a tool trailer and should be taking delivery of that in about a month. At the same time we are beginning to outfit it with some critical larger tools. What does this mean? No more struggles over deciding whether we can haul cargo or people in our vehicles or trying to compromise. It also means we can be better equipped and prepared than probably ever before. That is exciting!

How can you help?

1. Think about and seriously consider participating and committing early. Knowing early and knowing what general skill sets we have helps planning with the coordinators on site and helps to identify and commit to more meaningful work sites.
2. If you know now, let me know, or even how you are leaning.
3. If you are new, apprehensive, and want some more info, call or email me. I can send you some early advance info.
4. If you know of anyone who is breaking up house keeping and would like to donate tools or equipment in good condition, contact me to see if we can use it/ them.
5. We would like to "letter" our trailer. Think about some appropriate signage. We'll offer a prize for the winning entry.

FAITH AND NATURE GROUP—Sunday, April 12 at 1:30 p.m.

"Heaven is under our feet, as well as over our heads." –Henry David Thoreau

That famous quote was running through my mind on March 8th when we arrived at Nolde Forest and set out on a blanket of powdery snow on the trails. The trees seemed to sparkle as they held onto the snow in the bright sunlight against a clear blue sky. And the forest was alive with the late winter territorial calls and songs of native songbirds eagerly anticipating spring as they stake out potential nesting sites. We were also blessed to have caught a glimpse of one of the most striking birds in our forests, the pileated woodpecker. For me, the highlight of our winter trek was just stopping for a few moments along the trail and being silent and just listening to the sounds of the winter woods. The wind through the trees, the soft trickle of melting snow, the babbling water of Nolde Creek, and the chorus of chickadees, cardinals, and juncos was simply a blessed moment. Knowing that God created every single one of these tiny miracles all around us is astounding. It revives my soul and reminds me of how blessed I am to have others to share these moments with. Thanks to Debbie & Fred Remelius, Laura & Andy Hazeltine, Dave & Hannah Weller, and Lisa Bush for joining me.

Our next hike will be on Sunday April 12th as we take on the Turtle Trail, a 4 mile trail that travels through the remote section of the Hopewell Big Woods in French Creek State Park. This is a moderately challenging hike with a few rocky sections. Please join us as we search for signs of spring! We will meet at church @ 1:30 pm. Sign up on bulletin board or contact me at mdeegsl6@aol.com or by phone at 484-524-8072.

Hope to see you out there.

Introduction of Our New Parish Nurse, Dawn Skelly

It was several years ago that the elders and deacons first caught the vision of expanding and deepening our ministry of healing through the addition of a part-time parish nurse to our staff. After years of exploration and preparation, and two rounds of interviews with several qualified candidates, the Health Ministry Team presented to the Session its candidate, Dawn Skelly. At its March meeting, the Session approved hiring Dawn for 15 hours per week. (Note: the position will be funded entirely by the Porter-Broward Grant.)

Dawn grew up in this area and graduated from Methacton High School. She received her B.S.N. from the University of Delaware, graduating with honors. More recently, she was certified as a school nurse through Immaculata College. She lives in Collegeville her husband and three sons.

Dawn comes to us with 13 years of experience in a clinical setting, providing medical/surgical care to children and their families at Children's Hospital of Pennsylvania, several years' experience as a home health care nurse in Bryn Mawr and Chesterbrook, as well as experience as a school nurse. It is clear from her recommendations that she enjoys and communicates well with people of all ages, qualities that were instantly confirmed in her conversations with the Health Ministry Team.

As a parish nurse, Dawn will not give treatment or replace your health care providers. But Dawn will be available to visit and assist individuals with preparation and follow-up for surgery; counsel individuals and family members regarding long-term care facilities and end-of-life issues; educate the congregation, individuals, deacons and HENS about health-related issues through classes or programs; assist with referral information and community resources; coordinate parish volunteer care for the sick; help individuals understand diagnoses and treatment plans.

Dawn will work with the Health Ministry Team to help shape this new ministry. Members of the HMT are Dedra Philips, Marcia Zeigler, Gina James, Linda Luey, and Shaaron Guenther. You can learn more about the HMT's vision, and meet Dawn Skelly at the Forum class on April 19, and during worship on that Sunday. Come greet her in the fellowship time following the service, where cake (or perhaps something healthier) will be served.

Family Faith Formation

Excerpt from the blog post “Church on Sunday: Because Spiritual Education Takes More Than Good Intentions” by Christine Organ. The whole essay can be read at <http://parenting.blogs.nytimes.com/2014/12/07/church-on-sunday-because-spiritual-education-takes-more-than-good-intentions/>

“...without something external putting spirituality in front of us weekly, I worry that my intention of sharing my spirituality with my children may go unfulfilled. Opportunities for spiritual connection can so easily go away. And just like parents cannot home-school their child on subjects like math, science and grammar without actually teaching math, science and grammar, I’m not sure a parent can raise a child to be spiritual without actually teaching them how to do so. It takes more than just good intentions; it takes an intentional effort to be spiritual and then letting our children bear witness to our own spirituality.

That intentional effort doesn’t have to look the same in every family. There are a million different “right” answers, and what is right may change over time. Figuring it out takes a lot of thought, a good deal of discussion and even a little experimentation.”

—Jeff

Special mention: A massive thank you to Gershon Gordon and Tunde Oladipo for joining us at the teacher appreciation breakfast. We always love when Kirkwood can come to Pottstown! A reminder that all offering collected during Sunday School will go towards Kirkwood. So far we have raised over $600!!!! Keep up the good work!

Music Notes

This year marks the 106th anniversary of the annual ecumenical Easter sunrise service on Mount Rubidoux in Riverside, California. Worshipers carry lawn chairs, blankets and snacks up the mountain in time to attend the 6 a.m. service. It is a 45-minute walk! You won't have to get up that early to hear excerpts from "Easter Morning on Mount Rubidoux", nor walk that far. It will be played on the organ at the 8:30 AM Easter service this year at our church! The piece was written in 1926 by Harvey Gaul, an organist from Pittsburgh. Listen as the chimes summon the worshipers, and then for the strains of a familiar Easter hymn.

The Chancel Choir will embellish our Easter service with "Thine Is The Glory." The piece was originally penned as "Thine Be the Glory," authored by Edmond Louis Budry, who was born in Vevey, Switzerland in 1854. He was educated at Lausanne, after which he became a minister in the Eglise Evangelique Libre du Canton de Vaud, which broke away from the Swiss National Reformed Church. He pastored in Cully and Sainte Croix, before moving to the Free Church at Vevey, near Montreux on Lake Geneva, where he served for thirty-five years. Along with writing original hymns, Budry also translated hymns from German, English and Latin into French. Some of his works were published in Chants Evangeliques, Lausanne, Switzerland, 1885. Our arrangement, written by Michael Burkhardt, will feature the choir, brass quartet, tuba, timpani and organ. Our service will also feature a piano, organ and choir arrangement of "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee," from Beethoven's Ninth Symphony and Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus."

Did you ever wonder why we stand for the singing of Handel's "Messiah?" Internet sources say it originated with the first London performance of "Messiah," which was attend by King George III. As the first notes of the triumphant Hallelujah Chorus rang out, the king rose to his feet and remained standing until the end of the chorus. Royal protocol has always dictated that when the monarch stands, everyone in their presence is also required to stand. Thus, the entire audience and orchestra stood when the king stood during the performance, initiating a tradition that has lasted more than two centuries. According to Andrew McGill, Director of Choral Music at the University of Illinois, it is lost to history the exact reason why or even if the King stood at that point. Explanations range from that fact that he was so moved by the performance that he rose to his feet, he needed to use the restroom, he had been dozing and woke with a start or the text, which places Christ as the King of Kings, signified that King George accepted that he too was subject to the Lord of Lords. But, there is no document of the event in history.

Some of you will recognize the George Beverly Shea hymn, "I'd Rather Have Jesus." We will hear that piece on the piano this month -- see if you can find hints of "Give Me Jesus" peeking out of the solo. Also this month, the Mark Hayes piano interpretation of "Here I Am, Lord" will be featured. The Chancel Bells will play the 2nd Sunday of April in a beautiful work entitled "A Tapestry, Be Thou My Vision." During the piece you see and hear several different handbell techniques. The piece is scored for violin and piano as well. Looking forward to William Einhorn and Deb Voytko playing with the bells!

Special thanks to Scott Sample, who generously shares his able talents with us week after week, who will be the guest organist and pianist the last week of the month.

--Cynthia Foust, Director of Music

Both the Cherubs and Celtic Singers have been busy preparing for Palm Sunday and Easter. The Cherubs are singing a lively anthem on Easter titled "It's Easter Day," while the Celts are singing "Look All Around Us, Then Join the Glad Song," by Hal Hopson. Both are cheery and bright, perfect for getting us out of Lenten's more somber fare.
