Letter from the Co-Pastors

Dearly Beloved:

Whether we are Democrat, Republican, or Independent, there are two stories, two narratives about life which compete for our attention and loyalty, not only this Fall in this election season, but throughout our lives. The first narrative centers on “more” and insists that “more is always better” - whether it is more income, more “stuff,” bigger savings accounts or bigger houses. In this narrative, no matter how much we have, it is never quite enough for our happiness, or safety, or security. If we had more, then we would be happy, safe, and secure. When this cultural narrative captures our attention, we focus more on things and less on people; we pay more attention to what others have that we do not have, and so we are never content. Studies show that having more and making more have very little correlation with being happy. Sadly, studies show that winners of the lottery have a spike of happiness but after about six months, they are no happier than they were before winning the lottery.

The second narrative competing for our attention and loyalty is the gospel story. In the gospel, we are told that life does not consist in the abundance of things, that it is more blessed to give than to receive, that people count more than things, and that we find true meaning, purpose, and joy in living our life, not for ourselves, but for others. When the gospel captures our attention, we focus not on what we lack but on what we have, and on how God has blessed us in so many ways, especially through the gift of his Son. When we listen to the gospel story, we find it possible to be content whatever our circumstances might be: “for I have learned to be content with whatever I have. I know what it is to have little, and I know what it is to have plenty. In any and all circumstances, I have learned the secret of ...having plenty and of being in need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me.” (Phil. 4:11-13).

This November, may we cast our vote for which voice we are going to listen to, which story we are going to follow—not when we go to the polls, but when we fill out our pledge cards and make our commitments of our time, talents, and money for the coming year. May we vote for the gospel by following the example of Jesus Christ “who became poor that we might be rich.” May we vote for the gospel by counting our blessings with gratitude and being aware of all that God has given us. May we vote for the gospel by “letting our blessings flow” from God, through us, to others, for “it is in losing our lives that we save them,” and it is in giving that we will find our greatest joy, purpose, and peace.

Gratefully your pastors,
Carter and Kerry

Faith and Nature Group

We have two fantastic outings on the schedule for November and I hope that many of you will join us. First up is our annual full day hike on Saturday, November 5th. This year we are going to the Delaware Water Gap to hike to Sunfish Pond, one of the top scenic wonders of the East coast. We will plan to hike approximately 6 miles on this hike, allowing plenty of time on top for lunch and to simply enjoy this special place. If time permits, we will also take a short drive to hike to the top of Mt. Tammany for an epic view of the Delaware Gap.

And then on Saturday, November 26th, we will take my favorite trip of the year to the Conowingo Dam to view the annual eagle migration. This is always a great day outdoors, as many of you already know. Every year dozens, and sometimes hundreds, of bald eagles congregate at the dam to feed on fish passing through the dam area. Cont. on p. 7

For a few weeks every year, this spot becomes the second largest colony of bald eagles on the East coast. And the best part of it is that you don't even have to walk more than a few yards to see these amazing creatures at close range. It is a glorious experience that never gets old. There will also be an opportunity for a short hike along the Susquehanna River, but feel free to come and go as you please. We will meet at the church parking lot at 9:00 am and caravan/car pool to the dam. Pack a lunch or plan on joining us as a group for lunch on the return trip in the village of Port Deposit. We will be back in Pottstown approximately 4:00pm. Any questions, please contact me at: mdeegan2882@comcast.net. I hope to see you out there. —Mike Deegan

New Clothes For Children at Christmas

Again this year there is an opportunity to provide children in need in Pottstown with new clothes and/or cozy pajamas at Christmas. Cards will be available in the large cornucopia in the church foyer starting Sunday, November 20. Select a card and purchase a new outfit or pajamas in the requested size and gender. Bring these gifts, unwrapped (no tissue paper please!) and in a Christmas gift bag to church by Sunday, December 18. Please staple your card to one side of the gift bag. If you choose, as some have in the past, to purchase more than one outfit/child, please put each outfit or pajamas in a separate gift bag and create a duplicate tag for the second bag. These gifts will be distributed to the children by the Pottstown Cluster.

Christmas Stockings for our Community Meals Guests

Deck the Fellowship hall with stockings for our Community Meal Christmas dinner on Dec. 8. Pick up a stocking from the basket in the lobby, with a list of suggested toiletries and treats to fill it. And then have some fun playing Santa!

Music Notes:

As November approaches, let us be reminded to “sing and make music in our hearts to the Lord, always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ” (Ephesians 5:19-20.) On November 6th, for the All Saints Sunday service, we will begin with the Chancel Handbells playing a sensitive and expressive arrangement of the wonderful spiritual, “My Lord, What A Morning”, by Dan Edwards. Mark Hayes’ arrangements of “O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing” and “Holy Ground” will be offered by the Chancel Choir and Deb Voytko as this week’s anthem and offertory.

You might have noticed the name “Mark Hayes”, as it appears in the bulletin quite often! Mark is an award-winning concert pianist, composer, arranger and conductor. His personal catalog, totaling over 1,000 published works, includes work for solo voice, solo piano, multiple pianos, orchestra, jazz combo, small instrumental ensembles, and choruses of all kinds. He has conducted orchestras performing his work at Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center. In 2010, Baylor University Center for Christian Music Studies awarded Mark the Award for Exemplary Leadership in Christian Music. In June 2010 Mark released his first CD of original songs titled All Is Well, featuring Kansas City jazz artist, Monique Danielle. Whether concertizing on the other side of the globe or composing at his home in Kansas City, Missouri, Mark is blessed to live out his mission “to create beautiful music for the world” - and he certainly has!!

Karg-Elert’s “Praise the Lord with Drums and Cymbals” will bring us into worship on Sunday, November 13th, as Deb’s organ prelude. Our Cherubs and Celtic Singers will offer an anthem and Gilpin’s gospel setting of “How Can I Keep from Singing” will be sung by the Chancel Choir during the offertory. The organ postlude will be Scarlatti’s “Allegro.”

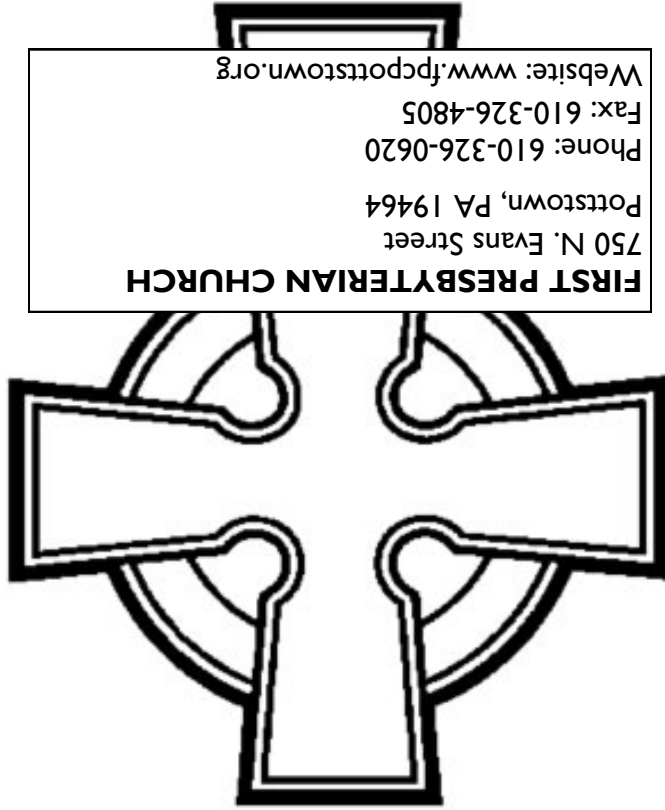

“Jesus Shall Reign Where’er The Sun” by Hobby will begin the Thanksgiving Sunday service as the organ prelude. “Now Thank We All our God”, a well-known and very popular hymn during this season, will be offered twice during this service. It will be heard first as the Chancel Choir anthem, with Deb and Scott on the four-hand piano accompaniment, and later as the postlude, with Deb playing the organ arrangement by Cherwien.

The last Sunday in November, brings us to the season of Advent. As we welcome Scott Sample to the bench as our guest organist for this service, we also look forward to the magnificent music of the season. Praying the music we have chosen to fill our November services, will fill your hearts with thanksgiving!

Making a Joyful Noise!! Cindy, Deb and JoAnn
