Letter from the Co-Pastors

We have many reasons for giving thanks in our ministry with you. This month, we want to pause to share our gratitude for something that can seem so ordinary and mundane and yet which is important for our ministry here: our building and grounds and all those who contribute to its upkeep, utility, and beauty. There are always maintenance and repair needs around here as these 56 year-old facilities get well used. We are grateful for the members of the Administrative Committee and other volunteers who have given considerable time to make these repairs, and work with Marie to bring in repair personnel when needed. Indeed, we have blessed over the years with a series of great Admin. Committee chairs and volunteers. The work they do, the work our gardening volunteers do, and the work our sexton, Tom, does, all help to make these buildings and grounds inviting and welcoming to stranger, neighbor, and member alike.

We are also thankful for the larger repairs and improvements we have been able to make this summer. The biggest project is the installation of parking lot lights. For over a decade, church members who come or leave in the darkness, especially our choir members who do that every week, have expressed their hope that we could do this work for safety reasons. We had plans drawn up more than ten years ago, but had to put off the work because of the cost. This year we were finally able to put in these lights. Good things come to those who are patient: in the intervening years, LED light technology has developed so that the energy costs during the year will be much less. A project that may have been less obvious but which was also safety-driven has been two extensions of the sidewalk: now folks do not have to walk in the driveway to reach the Peace Garden from the sanctuary, or reach the Evans Street door from the main doors.

Then there is the work done in two of our most heavily used rooms, the library and the Mary Ann Yost room. The carpeting needed replacing in both rooms, and the Admin. Committee and Session decided that now was the time to make some improvements and repaint before new carpet is installed. These two rooms, along with our Community Room, which received attention a few years ago, are especially important for funerals and weddings, so it is nice that we can provide an inviting and hospitable space. We have tried to do these improvements as good stewards not just in the short run but also the long run, so that what we do will last another twenty years. These improvements were made possible by the gifts of church members who are no longer alive but who gave through their estates to bless the ministry of the church for many years to come.

It is true that the "church is not a building...the church is a people," as a children's song puts it. Yet it is also true that these building and grounds are used well and hard for ministry. Do you know that in addition to our congregation, HENS, and all of our Community Meals guests who come here on Thursday, these(cont. p.9)

The Marriage Course: A Great Investment

In Lent 2018, we offered an abbreviated version of The Marriage Course, a dvd-based series produced by the Anglican Church in Britain. Nicky and Sila Lee, authors of The Marriage Book, developed The Marriage Course for couples looking for practical support to strengthen their relationship. The course is designed to help couples build strong foundations, learn to communicate more effectively and resolve differences well. The leaders are Christians, they live and teach out of the values of their faith, but participants of any faith, or of no faith, are welcome in the course. The Marriage Course sets a “date night” environment conducive to couples’ being able to talk with one another privately and comfortably. The course does not involve couples’ talking with the entire group, but only with one another.

At the end of Lent, several couples expressed interest in participating in the full course. And so, we are eager to offer the complete Marriage Course, consisting of 7 sessions, each lasting about an hour and a half. We will gather on a Sunday late afternoon or evening, (specific times to be determined by participants) in October, November, January, February, March, April and May. Childcare will be provided by a grant from Porter-Broward Foundation so that couples of any age can participate. The cost for all the sessions is $75 per couple, and includes the participants’ books and food.

After FPC members have had a chance to register, we will publicize the course beyond the congregation. Contact Kerry or Carter if you have any questions, or would like to reserve a spot.

Our first gathering will be Oct. 28, 5:00-7:00 p.m. Dinner included!

CROP WALK, SUNDAY, OCT. 14

Join First Presbyterians and members of other congregations in the community in the oldest community walk, the CROP Hunger Walk. Last year, $9 million was raised by 120,000 walkers in 900 walks. We walk either one or five miles, and 25% of all money raised goes to the Cluster Outreach Center, with the rest going to meet needs around the world through Church World Service. The walk begins and ends from our church with registration at 1:30, a pep rally at 1:45, and the walk beginning at 2:00. To contribute go to the church CROP Walk page and click on the First Presbyterian page:

Women's Retreat – October 26-27

It is important for the wellbeing of our souls to be able to survey the terrain of our everyday life and identify ways to “turn aside” to meet the Holy One. Together we will contemplate, discuss and explore the spiritual practices that can be useful in navigating the ever-changing terrains we find ourselves in, trusting God is there waiting to speak to us when we “turn aside.” Amy Shutt will be returning as our retreat leader this year. Amy is a Spiritual Director with a heart for noticing the movement of God in her life, the lives of those she companions on the journey and the life of the world. She is a Ruling Elder in the Presbyterian Church (USA) and has facilitated small group spiritual formation for over 20 years. Amy has two adult children, is employed as an engineer and enjoys reading, quilting, yoga, and gathering with friends.

Our retreat will be at Mariawald Renewal Center in Shillington. Choose one of the following options for your stay:

- 5:00 pm Friday, Oct. 26 - 5:00 pm Saturday, Oct. 27. Double occupancy is $75.00 per person. Three meals are included beginning with 6:00 pm dinner on Friday evening.
- Saturday, day retreat only from 9:00 am – 5:00 pm including lunch is $35.00.
- Through Sunday for contemplation, silence and group sharing and optional spiritual direction sessions. Cost for Friday through Sunday is $135.00. (check with Gina for more details)

Enjoy a fall weekend with your Sisters in Christ! Reserve your space with a check to the church office or Gina James by October 4th. Scholarship money is available, please talk to Kerry.

Bridge Builders*: New in the Library

Have you taken the time to browse in the church library lately? Now that the colder weather is setting in, curl up with a good book, or better yet, share a story with a child close to you! Check out the new children's books recently purchased courtesy of the Mission Committee. These books were carefully researched and chosen to expand the library's collection of diverse and multicultural children's books. The stories focus on typical childhood experiences, problems, thoughts, feelings, and questions through the eyes of children from diverse cultures.

- Lost and Found Cat by Doug Kuntz and Amy Shrodes – A true, unforgettable story of a beloved pet cat and his family fleeing the Iraqi city of Mosul. As the refugees land in Greece, Kunkush becomes lost. Read on to see how a worldwide search and the kindness of strangers eventually reunites Kunkush with his family!
- A Different Pond by Bao Phi – A simple fishing trip with a young boy and his dad becomes a lesson in family history. As the boy's eyes are opened to life in his father's native Vietnam, the reader sees what his family's life is like as immigrants trying to make a new life in America.
- Lailah's Lunchbox by Reem Faruqi – Focusing on the universal theme of what it feels like to be different from peers, Lailah learns to appreciate and share her Muslim heritage as she participates for the first time in fasting for the celebration of Ramadan.
- Harbor Me by Jacqueline Woodson – For the middle school on up reader, Harbor Me touches on many of the issues confronting teenagers today. Six teens meet weekly to share their fear and anxiety about such experiences as fear of deportation, racial profiling, yearning to know family history, and seeking a sense of belonging. Through conversation, friendship, empathy, and open minded dialogue, they help each other cope.

The Snowy Day by Ezra Jack Keats – For the younger set, this children's classic tells the story of a young boy finding the magic of the first snowfall of the year.

Family Faith Formation

Way back in February, we talked about creating a sacred space in our homes. (Old Celtic Crosses are available on the church's website if you want to look back) I love the symbolism of the church and was thinking about ways to include that in our sacred spaces. The church uses color to mark the passage of time throughout the year. We use 4 colors: Green, Purple, White, and Red:

Green: Ordinary or Growing time.

Purple: A time of preparation: Advent and Lent

White: Holy Days: Christmas and Easter

Red: The birth of the church and the gift of the Holy Spirit; Pentecost

I encourage you to include these colors in your sacred space and to talk about the transitions as the colors are changed throughout the year. An older child could even be in charge of keeping track of when to change the colors.
