Letter from the Co-Pastors

*And you, high eternal Trinity,
acted as if you were drunk with love,
infatuated with your creature.
When you saw that this tree could bear no fruit
but the fruit of death
because it was cut off from you who are life,
you came to its rescue
with the same love with which you had created it:
you engrafted your divinity into the dead tree of our humanity....
You, sweetness itself, stooped to join yourself with our bitterness.
You, splendor, joined yourself with darkness;
you, wisdom, with foolishness;
you, life, with death;
you, the infinite, with us who are finite.
What drove you to this
to give back life to this creature of yours
that had so insulted you?
Only love, as I have said,
and so by engrafting, death is destroyed.*

Catherine of Siena

Signs of the 'dead tree of our humanity' are all around us, and we often feel cut off from the One who is life. But we are not consigned to our own foolishness and death! God 'acted as if He were drunk with love,' and came to our rescue. God is still coming. God will come again.

Don't miss the coming of God into your life, into the world. The prophet says, "Get ready!" Jesus says, "Keep watch!" Of course we want to be alert in all seasons, but especially in this season of Advent we look for the appearing of the Infinite One among us finite, mortal creatures. There are a lot of things that get in the way and obscure our vision. It can be hard to see holy splendor in the darkness – or in the garish brightness of the world at this time of year. But it helps to keep company with people who are also looking. Come, be with others who are keeping watch. Choose to spend time looking for the divine appearing. Clear and improve your spiritual vision – through quietness, through worship, through prayer, through contemplation, and through fellowship and festive celebration. This is not meant to be a season of burden and excess: the high eternal Trinity of Love comes to give back life to us. Here, there are people who are trying to become ready to receive it -- be one of them, and be glad!

With expectancy,
Carter and Kerry

On December 13th the Chancel Choir will sing John Ness Beck's “Every Valley,” incorporating the well known Isaiah text. December 20th will showcase the Westminster Choir singing with the Chancel Choir a new Craig Courtney anthem, “Bring Us Peace.” And we promise to inspire and delight you with our musical offerings on Christmas Eve at the late service. Once again, the music will begin at 10:00 P.M. so please try to arrive before so as not to miss anything. The evening will include vocal and instrumental duets, the Handbell Choir, the Chancel Choir, two children cantors and our violinist for the night, Matt Ricci. Once again I want to thank our adult and youth choirs, Deb Voytko (accompanist/organist/right hand), Scott Sample and Corinne Griffiths for all their hard work in helping us create the magic that you enjoy each week. People to People Directory

The Hospitality Committee is planning to update and distribute our "People to People" Directory. This directory lists selected members of the church and their occupation/profession or a service that they offer to the general public. For example, we list medical professionals, attorneys, electricians, baby-sitters, carpenters, real estate personnel, pet care providers, babysitters, etc. If church members are in need of a particular service, then they can contact the appropriate member directly to discuss specifics.

The Hospitality Committee will contact all members who are listed in the current directory to determine if they want to continue their listing. If you wish to be included, whether or not, you were in the previous "edition," look for the table at the Deacons' breakfast or contact the church office.
