Letter from the Co-Pastors

Dearly Beloved,

“What’s in a pew?” You can tell a lot about a congregation by what you find in the pew racks in any sanctuary. Are there Bibles in the pew? That is a sign that the congregation wants the Word of God to be made available and open to everyone. What hymn or songbooks are in the pew racks? The music that a congregation sings tell a lot about the theology and personality of the congregation that worships in that sanctuary. Are there Friendship pads? If so, you know that a congregation seeks to be welcoming to newcomers and to one another. Are there age-appropriate children’s resources? That is a clue that a congregation understands children and wants them to be a part of the worshipping church family.

Very soon, you will see two new additions to the pew racks in our sanctuary. First, you will find a brochure entitled “Worship and Sacraments,” written by Kerry, with photographs and layout by Craig Duncan (bless you, Craig!). Copies of this brochure will be available in new member packets, and in the literature racks (please do not remove the copies in the pew!)

After that, with your help, there will be a new songbook, “Sing the Faith,” put out by the PCUSA. Our primary hymnal will still be the blue hardcover PCUSA hymnbook: this songbook will replace the current “Lift Up Your Hearts” songbook. “Sing the Faith” pulls together much of the music we have been singing from inserts in the bulletin (e.g. “Will You Come and Follow Me?”, “Blest are They,” “They Will Know We Are Christians”) – as well as other music, from beloved old hymns (e.g. “His Eye is on the Sparrow”) to newer music (“As the Deer,” “Grace Alone”), to songs from the world church. You can read more about these songbooks, and how you can help, on page 2.

Of course, the clearest sign of what a church is like is found by the most important thing in any pew: worshipping Christians! Looking forward to seeing you in church.

*Grace and peace,
Kerry and Carter*

P.S. Don’t forget to get your picture taken for the directory, October 18-22. Sign up online via the church webpage, or on Sundays after church, or by contacting the church office. We want everyone in our family album! If you will be out of town that week, we can still get your picture in the directory—check with Jaylee Ferreri or Carter. And join us for the giant congregational family snapshot on Sunday, Oct. 16 (see p.3)

Sing the Faith—Give a gift in honor of, or in memory of, someone important to you

Upon the recommendation of the staff and Worship Committee, the Session has voted to replace the Lift Up Your Hearts hymnals with a new songbook, Sing the Faith. The new songbook is a newer and improved version of Lift Up Your Hearts, with all of the favorites from Lift Up Your Hearts, and many more singable contemporary songs from the world church. It also includes several of the songs we sing from inserts in the bulletin through a special license we purchase. Help us purchase these songbooks with a $15 donation. You can give the book to the church in honor or memory of someone and a bookplate showing your gift and dedication will appear in the songbook. All of the dedications from Lift Up Your Hearts will be transferred to the new books, but we still need to purchase 140 more. Look for the bulletin insert or contact the church office to make your gift.

Counters’ Corner for October

Thanks to those who volunteered to serve as counters in October: Bill Campbell (head counter), Sharon Trevoy, Barb Longstreth, and Marion McNey. (If you must miss a Sunday in October, please recruit a substitute). And thanks to our coordinator, Hank Phillips. If you are willing to serve as a “counter” one month, please contact Hank or the church office.

Upcoming Events

Come and go after work or Music and Recreation or before Committee night for a great meal that will support Camp Kirkwood and PrimeTimers. Tickets are $8/adults and $4/ children—and can be purchased on Sundays or during the week from the church office. Friends welcome! Take out available!

CROP Walk and Stockholders' Meeting—Sunday, October 9

The CROP Walk raises money to feed the hungry, both in Pottstown through the Cluster Outreach Center and Community Meals, and worldwide through Church World Service. Walkers from Pottstown area congregations walk a 10 kilometer route (or a shorter "Golden Mile") and recruit others to support their walk.

Please join us for the walk, no matter what age you are, and recruit people to support you at $.50, $1, or $10 per kilometer—or find another walker to support. The walk begins and ends at our church. Meet at the church at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, October 9. Follow the link to our team webpage from the church webpage. Questions? Contact Rob Wade, our CROP Walk coordinator, at rwade@wadegold.com

Then that night at 6:30, the Senior High Seekers will be presenting their "stockholders report" through video to all those who supported their mission trip to New York last summer.

Congregational Picture of Everyone—October 16

On Sunday, October 16, one of our professional photographers, Keyai Lee, is going to take a picture of everyone who is here—all four generations—right after worship in the sanctuary. Join us for this "family portrait" which will later appear in the Community Room and in our new picture directory.

Apple Fest, Sunday, October 23 after worship

Stay after worship and follow your nose to the great smell of apples baking on Sunday, October 16 for the Fun and Fellowship Committee's third Apple Fest in Fellowship Hall. There will be an apple pie contest and apple dumplings will be served (plain or with vanilla ice cream). Various baked items (with apple as an ingredient) will also be on sale. Sign up on the church bulletin board to enter the contest or to contribute a baked item.

Let us know if you are coming (so we know how many apple dumplings to have) by signing up!

A video of all of the people appearing in "We are the church" pictures (this year's theme) will be shown as well. The show will be great for all ages. You will not want to miss it! Dedication Sunday is November 13.

Deacons' Bench

Church Work Day, Saturday, October 22, 9 a.m. to Noon

On Saturday, October 22, we have our Fall church-wide work day, led by the Deacons. We will rake leaves, trim hedges, and prepare the gardens for the winter. Bring your tree and hedge trimming tools and a rake. There will also be an "inside" crew cleaning the kitchen. Sign-up is on the bulletin board or call Doreen Duncan.

A Word from our Ushers:

Have you ever asked yourself why the Deacon's usher or why they may ask to walk you to your seat on Sunday mornings? The answer is simple...part of the mission of the Deacons is to reach out to the congregation...to not only greet you but to welcome you to worship as well! In life, it is the little things that make a difference and making a one-on-one personal connection with both long time members as well as first time visitors is the perfect way to extend the hand of God...so next time a Deacon asks if they can show you to your seat gladly accept and join in the passing of the Peace of Christ!

Deacons' Medical Closet

The Deacons' Medical Closet has moved its location. You can now find needed medical items in the attic of the Sunday School wing. If you need an item, just call ahead and Peggy will make sure it is waiting for you in the office when you come to the church..

Session Digest

At its September meeting, the Session:

- Approved the baptism of William Keith Dyer, Jr., child of God and son of William K. Dyer, Sr. and Gwendolyn Lint Dyer, on October 16, 2011.
- Sang selections from Sing the Faith with the help of Deb Voytko and approved the recommendation of the Worship Committee to: 1) Purchase of Sing the Faith as a supplemental hymnal for the congregation. 2) Transfer the dedications from Lift Up Your Hearts into the new songbooks.. 3) Give members of the congregation an opportunity to purchase and dedicate these new hymnals at $15/copy; and (4) Make the Lift Up Your Hearts hymnals available to a church that can use them.
- Received and approved a brochure developed by Kerry, Craig Duncan, and the Worship Committee that explains “what we are doing here” in worship and celebration of the sacraments. Approved that up to $500 be spent from the Memorial Fund for copies on heavier stock to be placed in the pews. Copies on regular paper will be available in the literature racks and in new member packets for members to take home if they would like to do so.
- Received and discussed the financial report with Treasurer, Michelle Thompson. Agreed that the congregation should be informed about our current deficit through the Celtic Cross. Approved payment of two months of the mission allocation.
- Reflected on the past year and listed and discussed “the accomplishments and blessings that we should celebrate and give thanks for,” as the Session prepares to look ahead and establish points of emphasis for a new year of ministry.
- Received a report from Mission and approved receipt of the Peacemaking offering.
- Received the news that most of the HVAC replacement has taken place in the newer wing, but the project cannot be fully completed until backordered parts arrive. As part of the project, the church will have a new hot water heater which should result in energy savings since domestic hot water will no longer be required to be heated by the church’s main boilers.
- Received a report from the Hospitality Committee on feedback from surveys of those who have recently joined the church, and heard that 19 new members attended the recent reception at Kerry and Carter’s house.
- Approved promotion of the “Routes of Hope” Run-Walk for the Tierra L. Dobry Foundation.

Music Notes

As leaves fall and the days shorten, the church choirs will spend many hours learning and rehearsing new music to make your Sunday service more meaningful. October 2nd is World Communion and the Chancel choir will sing the lovely, "Take Time To Be Holy." The following Sunday is Mission Sunday and we will sing the appropriate, "Follow Me." Don't miss October 16th when the choir will present a stunning anthem, "All Who Dwell In The Shadow Of The Lord." The following week, "Consecration," by John Ness Beck, will be sung. Our final Sunday in October is Reformation Sunday, and we will sing Mary McDonald's new anthem, "His Grace Will Lead Us Through." The Chancel choir is also working on music for the Stewardship program in November. You will NOT want to miss that.

The Handbell choir will open their season on Reformation Sunday. That morning they will play, "Holy, Holy, Holy" and Gary James will accompany them on the trumpet. This Christmas, the Handbell choir will play four anthems in the pre-service music. They are working hard to learn this extra music.

Don't forget to thank a choir member (of any age) for the gift of their time and talent.

Fondly,

Diane Land, Director of Music

Library in Focus—One New Book

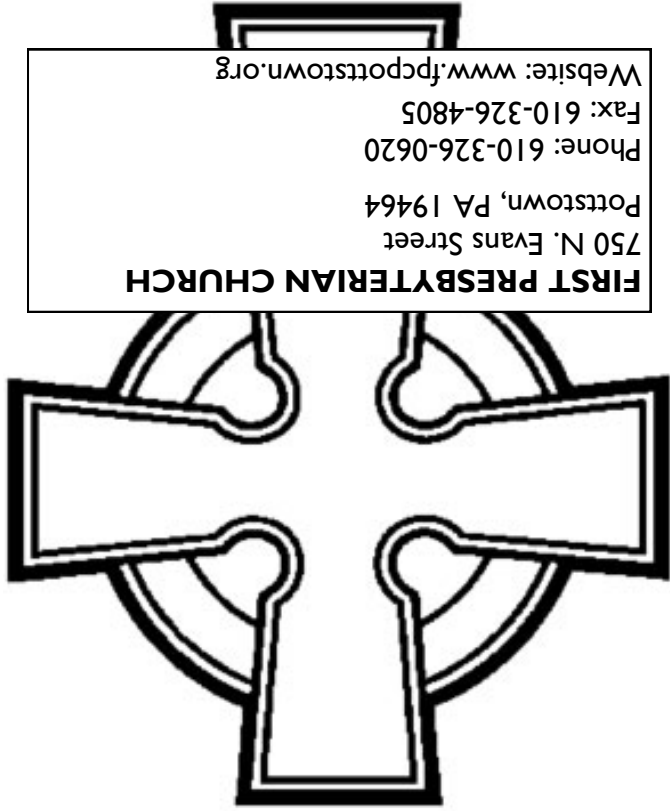

Calendonia : Legend of the Celtic Stone and An Ancient Strife By Michael Phillips

These two books are really a series about our Scottish heritage, written in a fascinating and engaging story. There is an old Gaelic proverb the author uses, "Remember the men [and women] from whence you came." It is a story of love and war, history and intrigue, mystery and adventure, winding back and forth between ancient and modern times.

The hero, Andrew Trentham, and the people in his life move through political strife and compromise, trying to balance personal and national values. It is a story that draws you in immediately and involves you in the lives of the characters. In his notes, Phillips describes the "blurry line between story and history, fact and fiction" as he sees it. These books are a great read and will keep you guessing the outcome right to the end. Enjoy! —Jane Barndt
