Letter from the Co-Pastors

Dearly Beloved,

As most of you know by now, Sunday, October 7, will be the last Sunday for Olivia Stewart Robertson, or Liv, with our congregation. She and her husband Scott will be moving in early October to Michigan where Scott has received a call to serve as an Associate Pastor in a Presbyterian congregation. It is with sadness and gratitude that we will say good-bye to Liv, because as our first ever “Director of Children, Youth, and Family” she has contributed much to the ministry and fellowship of this congregation and staff. We are especially grateful for the “Young Children and Worship” program she has brought to our congregation, and we are glad to know that she will continue to introduce that program to congregations across the country after she moves. Please join us on Sunday, October 7, to say “good-bye and God bless” to Liv.

We are also grateful for all of the church members who are stepping up to take on many of the responsibilities in Liv’s absence. Members of the Spiritual Formation Committee will be helping to coordinate Sunday School and Young Children and Worship program, the Seekers’ advisors are working together closely so our youth program does not step back this year, and Amy Shutt has offered to lead the senior high Bible study. The two of us will also be helping out with Seekers and the Music and Recreation program as needed. The Personnel and Spiritual Formation Committees have considered hiring an interim staff person, but we are reluctant to ask our children and youth to say hello and goodbye in a short-time to an interim person. Now this may not be necessary. This has long been a congregation that takes its baptismal vows seriously, and once again, it is a blessing to see how many adults are willing to step up to nurture, guide, and support our children and youth.

Nearly 5 years ago, when we first met Liv and contemplated her addition to the staff, we felt like she was a real gift from God. And now, as we prepare to work with the Session to find a new person, we are confident that God again has someone in mind for us to build on the foundation Liv has laid, and to help our ministry to children, youth, and their families continue to grow in new ways.

“I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.”
—Isaiah 43:19

Please pray for us, and for our children and youth, as we say “goodbye”, and prepare to say “hello.”

Grace and peace,
Kerry and Carter

Pick up a bookmark with the list of texts or look at p. 10 in this newsletter, or read the blog, www.fpc100.wordpress.com. Each Sunday’s sermon will focus on one of the five texts read the previous week.

Music Notes

As the leaves begin their yearly parade of colors and you find the need for that extra layer, the choirs will already be preparing music for chilly December. Such is the joy of participating in any choir in our church. Remember that if you are interested, you can join the Chancel Choir at any time.

October 7th is World Communion and the Chancel Choir will present the joyful anthem, “A Sante Sana, Yesu.” The following Sunday the choir will enhance the sermon series with Lloyd Larsens, “I Am Not Afraid.” On October 21st, a new and catchy piece, “Wherever You Go,” will make you want to sing along. You won’t be able to get it out of your ‘head’ all week! The final Sunday in October is Reformation Sunday. The Chancel Choir will present Joseph Martin’s stunning, “A Noble Theme.” We also hope to celebrate with a bagpiper that morning.

We were able to fill our handbell opening within two days of the initial announcement! We can always use handbell substitutes, so if you are interested in learning how to play, please contact me (Crafdy1954@comcast.net).

I would like to thank Scott Sample and Cynthia Foust for brilliantly covering for me while I have been recuperating. I would also like to thank Beth Ann Straub for soloing last month. We are blessed to have so much talent in our church family. —Diane Land, Director of Music

Women's Retreat—October 26-27

Growing Together in the Light of Life

I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life. John 8:12

As Christians we think of ourselves as Easter people—people who live, not in darkness, but in the light, hope and love of the resurrected Christ. While we profess this, we often find it difficult to live out this creed when we are in the midst of trials and challenges.

How do we learn then, to live a life of trust, hope, faith and light in the midst of our dark times? This is the question we will explore at our 2012 Women's Retreat. There is so much we can learn—from scripture, nature, poetry, the writings of those who have walked in darkness, as well as those in our own circle of friends—about how to seek out and follow this light when we can't see the road ahead. Come and join us as we seek to grow together in the light of life.

Our returning retreat leader, Gayle Kerr, has been involved in the ministry of spiritual direction and retreat leadership for the past twenty-two years. Until June of 2007 when she and her husband moved to Massachusetts, Gayle served as a Spiritual Director at the Middleton Center at Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church. Gayle now resides in Yarmouthport, MA, is the mother of two grown sons and the grandmother of four grandsons.

Please join us at Mariawald Renewal Center in Shillington from 5:00 p.m. Friday, October 26 to 5:00 p.m. Saturday, October 27. Triple occupancy rate is $68.00 per person and double occupancy is $75.00 per person. Three meals are included beginning with dinner on Friday evening. Scholarship money is available, please talk to Kerry.

Come stroll a bit, rest a while, and snack a lot! Enjoy a fall weekend in fellowship with other women from our church family. Reserve your space with a check to the church office or Gina James by October 1, 2012. Contact Gina @ 610-367-6067 or gina.james@comcast.net

Family Faith Formation

One of the best ways to form faith as a family is through service. Here are some ways you can serve Christ together!

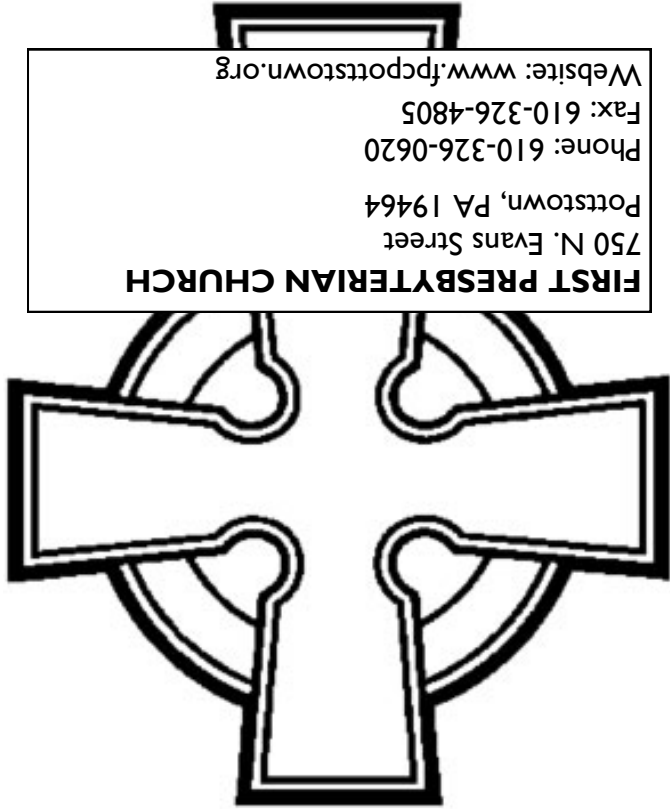

- “Adopt” an elderly member of the congregation to visit and to have to your home.
- Together as a family, buy groceries for a food pantry supporting the needy.
- Plan “hospitality nights” when you can have another family around for dinner.
- Go on a walk to collect stray rubbish in your neighborhood.
- Sponsor a child through World Vision or a similar organization.
- Make get-well cards to send to sick people in the congregation or community.
- Volunteer to help take care of an elderly person’s garden.

Branches of the Vine—Peacemaking Offering

In October, we receive the Peacemaking Offering, one of the four PCUSA church offerings each year. Its purpose, and its purpose is to find ways of promoting peace in our community, our nation, and in our world. Your contribution to the Peacemaking Offering provides a concrete way to fund the Peacemaking program of our denomination. The program helps to address conflict through peaceful means, namely through dialogue, education, and knowledge. The Presbyterian Church provides programs and conferences with international Peacemakers, and advocates for active nonviolent solutions to conflicts. Peacemaking is a central declaration of the gospel, as Jesus reminds us “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God” (Matthew 5:9).
