Letter from the Co-Pastors

Dearly Beloved:

Have you ever wanted to read more of the Scriptures, but did not know where to begin? Perhaps you are an experienced reader of the Bible who has always wanted to read systematically through the Scriptures but have never been able to do it. Perhaps you are new to the faith, or at least new to reading the Bible on your own, and feel too intimidated to even open the book. Or perhaps you are somewhere in between.

In any case, we, along with the Session and Spiritual Formation Committee, want to invite you to join us and the rest of the congregation on a grand adventure this Fall and Winter based on "The Essential One-Hundred Bible Reading Plan." The plan is a list of 100 "essential" Biblical passages: 50 passages from the Old Testament and 50 passages from the New Testament. As with any list, we all may quibble with this particular choice of 100 passages, but the list is a good starting point for seeing the big picture of the Old and New Testaments without getting bogged down. The passages are not long and are broken down into groups of five which can be read each week (one a day with two "catch up" days!).

We will read the 50 Old Testament passages over ten weeks this Fall, beginning September 16. The hope is that all of us will try to read the passages on our own, and then there will be opportunities to discuss the five passages for the week in Sunday School classes and Bible studies (see p. 4 or come to Rally Day for more details). Later this month, there will also be a blog page linked to the church webpage at www.fpc100.wordpress.com to discuss the passages, with opportunities for people to ask questions or offer their own comments and insights. Then on each Sunday, we will preach on one of the five passages from the previous week.

We will start reading the 50 Old Testament passages the week of September 16 and complete it by the beginning of Advent. We will then take a break before reading the 50 New Testament passages in the new year. You can pick up the list of readings in the church lobby beginning September 9. We will also include each week's readings in the Celtic Cross, beginning this month on p. 8, and in the weekly bulletin.

We think that reading these passages together not only offers us each an opportunity to get a better understanding of the Bible, but also gives us an opportunity as a congregation to be "on the same page," as we seek to understand God's will for our lives. Come and join us on this adventure and learn again the truth of the psalmist's words: "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path!"

See you in church,
Carter and Kerry

Music Notes:

NEEDED: We have an opening in the handbell choir. You do not have to read music to play, but it does help. Rehearsals are every Thursday from 6:40-7:25. The open position is for the smallest bells. If you are interested, please email me at Crafdy1954@comcast.net or call me at 610-327-1566. This will be on a first come, first serve basis. Bell rehearsals start in October (see below).

NEEDED: An accompanist for the Children's Choirs. If you can play piano and are free on Wednesday afternoons, Jo Ann Bathurst and her choirs need YOU. Please contact Jo Ann at 610-323-2091. Also if you know of someone who might be interested (someone in high school or outside the church) please let her know.

It's that wonderful, busy, cooler time of year and the Chancel Choir will be back to glorify God with music on September 9th. They will begin the season with the timeless Christ is Made the Sure Foundation, and on September 16th Beth Ann Straub will be soloing. The following Sunday the choir will sing a stunning new anthem by Mary Mc Donald, Be Still. On our final September Sunday, the choir will present, Savior Like A Shepherd Lead Us. Our first rehearsal is Thursday Sept 6th at 7:30 and all are welcome!!! This is a great time to join our Chancel Choir! Handbell rehearsals will begin in October (see below).

I would like to thank everyone who sang or played an instrument this summer. Many people spent hours practicing and preparing to add to our services so please thank them when you see them. It is a blessing we have so much talent. I also want to thank in advance Scott Sample and Cindy Foust. Because of some health issues, I will not be able to direct the choir in September. Scott and Cindy have agreed to lead our choirs in my absence. Health permitting, I hope to return in October (and we will begin handbell rehearsals then). Diane Land, Director of Music

Women's Retreat—October 26-27

Growing Together in the Light of Life

I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life. John 8:12

As Christians we think of ourselves as Easter people—people who live, not in darkness, but in the light, hope and love of the resurrected Christ. While we profess this, we often find it difficult to live out this creed when we are in the midst of trials and challenges.

How do we learn then, to live a life of trust, hope, faith and light in the midst of our dark times? This is the question we will explore at our 2012 Women's Retreat. There is so much we can learn—from scripture, nature, poetry, the writings of those who have walked in darkness, as well as those in our own circle of friends—about how to seek out and follow this light when we can't see the road ahead. Come and join us as we seek to grow together in the light of life.

Our returning retreat leader, Gayle Kerr, has been involved in the ministry of spiritual direction and retreat leadership for the past twenty-two years. Until June of 2007 when she and her husband moved to Massachusetts, Gayle served as a Spiritual Director at the Middleton Center at Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church. Gayle now resides in Yarmouthport, MA, is the mother of two grown sons and the grandmother of four grandsons.

Please join us at Mariawald Renewal Center in Shillington from 5:00 p.m. Friday, October 26 to 5:00 p.m. Saturday, October 27. Triple occupancy rate is $68.00 per person and double occupancy is $75.00 per person. Three meals are included beginning with dinner on Friday evening. Scholarship money is available, please talk to Kerry.

Come stroll a bit, rest a while, and snack a lot! Enjoy a fall weekend in fellowship with other women from our church family. Reserve your space with a check to the church office or Gina James by October 1, 2012. Contact Gina @ 610-367-6067 or gina.james@comcast.net.

Men—look in next month's Celtic Cross for the date of the men's retreat in February or March: "Gathering for Guys—the Sequel"

Worship Matters

Communion Table Cloth Dedication, September 16

Have you noticed the new cloth on the communion table? There is more to it than meets the eye! On September 16, during worship, we will disclose the secrets of this vibrant piece of textile art, and tell you the meaning behind it. Given to the glory of God, and in loving memory of Tierra Dobry by her family, this cloth was created by textile artist Kay Rolfs-Massaglia. It will be dedicated during the service as we welcome the Dobry family to worship that day.

50th Anniversary of Church Move and Sanctuary Dedication, September 30

In 1962, our sanctuary and building were dedicated following the congregation's move from High and Evans Street. The decision to move was not an easy one to make but it laid the foundation for our congregation's growth. Join us on September 30 as we celebrate this anniversary and recognize all of our 50-year members.

Church Property Update

Family Faith Formation

Tell God “thank you.”

It’s good to thank God for the food that we eat every day! We also thank God for the people who make our food. Think about your favorite snack food. Can you imagine all the steps that it took to make that snack? For example, if your favorite snack is sweet, then someone had to cut down the sugar canes to make the sugar for your sweet snack. Thank God for your favorite snack and for the many people who help make it.

Here’s my “thank you” prayer for my snack:

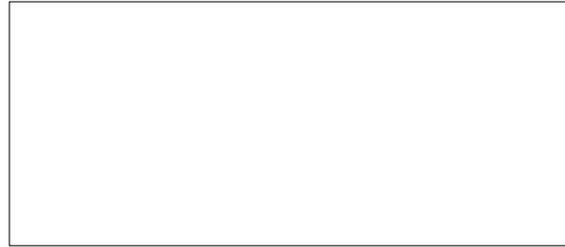

Mmmm, God, salt and vinegar chips make my tongue tingle! I could not have these chips to eat without the work of someone planting the potatoes in the ground, someone harvesting the potatoes, someone cutting and cooking the potatoes, someone making the machine to put the chips into bags, and someone else to drive the chips to the grocery store. God I don’t know the names of these people who made my chips but thank you for each person. And thank you for chips.

—Liv
